Carver-Price School News

Hello Readers! Tuesday's snow was welcome after many days of beautiful weather. Our farmers need these snows and rains for good crops.

Last Friday night our "Panthers" won over Buckingham High School's basketball team by a score of 60-37. High scorer was Curtis Whitehead who made 24 points. Willie Lilly, Eugene Browder, Allen Watkins, and George Jennings were the beginning line-up. They trouced over the opponents. The Junior Varsity played the last few minutes and up the score went too. The "J.V.s" playing were Herbert Williams, Raymond Lawing, William Bruce, and Walter Jones.

The Girls' team journeyed to Buckingham also. They lost by eight points with a score of 42-34. Rosa Jones, Captain and Left Forward, played exceptionally well, making 26 points. Laura Hubbard, and Georgia Scruggs played as Forwards and Luvenia Johnson, Viola Johnson and Helen McCoy as Guards. Pearl Jones Henrietta Ferguson, and Melinda Pennix also played. Those accompanying the two teams were Mrs. Ora Smith and Mrs. Odell Brown, Rev. and Mrs. N. R. Jordan and Coaches: Mrs. H. P. James and Mr. N. H. Miller

Friday, January 14, the 'Panthers' play Carver High of Fieldale there. We won over them last year and expect the same thing this year.

Principal R. E. Patrick continues very ill in the Lynchburg General Hospital. We are hoping for his speedy recovery.

The Eight and Ninth Grade Physical Education Girls play a basketball game Wednesday. There are some good prospective players in the group.

The honorable Seniors were to have their pictures taken in caps and gowns on Tuesday by the Richmond photographer, Mr. Brodnax. They were looking very nice, too — but guess what! The snow prevented the photographer from coming. We hope you'll soon have them taken, Seniors!

The Faculty Women's Basketball Team plays the Girls' Team on Monday, January 24th at 8:00 P. M. The Varsity plays the Alumni Boys that evening also. Don't forget the date.

The Faculty met last week and planned with Mrs. Mozella Price Supervisor and Chairman for the March of Dimes, three activities for raising funds to supplement the coin cards. A movie will be shown here and in the county schools, a basketball game with the Faculty Women's Team and Alumni mentioned above and a day for selling oranges which will be sold by Charles Jones, Ninth Grader, who was a polio victim in infancy. We are glad to have the opportunity to participate in these activities to bring our total amount up.

And now, our thought for the week:

"Kindness is the golden chain by which society is bound together."

FEEDER CALF SALES UP FROM LAST YEAR

Virginia farmers marketed 24,445 feeder calves at the 1954 series of feeder calf sales for $1 per cwt. more than at the 1953 sales, according to a summary just released by K. C. Williamson, associate animal husbandman at VPI.

In the 28 sales, prices averaged $19.23 per cwt., as compared with the $18.21 average chalked up for 1953 when 20,663 calves moved.

Of the calves sold, 66% were steers, and brought an average $21-10 per cwt., as compared to $15.35 for the heifers. Williamson points out that steers were responsible for most of the gain in price over 1953.

This makes the spread between heifers and steers even more of a problem to the producer, Williamson says. He poses the question, "Is the steer calf really worth $5.75 per cwt. more than a heifer calf or is someone missing an opportunity?" Eleven of the 28 sale groups guaranteed their heifers to be open, or a percentage refund. This guarantee takes most of the gamble out of buying heifers, Williamson says.

The Culpeper sale topped the state in percent of fancy and choice calves. There 57% were in the top grades, followed by Front Royal 55%, and Buana Vista, 53% in the first sale and 50% at the second. Two other sales, Staunton and Roanoke, broke the 50% mark. The state as a whole dropped under 1953, with 41% grading choice and fancy as compared to 44% in the 1953 sales.

The average weight of the calves dropped 4 pounds from last year to 439 this season, with the $1 per cwt. advance in price, an average in price, an average feeder calf was worth $84.52 at the 1954 sales, almost $4 per head above 1953's $80.63 average.

The Winchester sale broke the record for numbers by selling 3,818 calves. This still stands as one of the largest, if not the largest, feeder calf sales east of the Mississippi.

Buyers from 15 states and the District of Columbia registered and bought at Virginia sales this fall, and 73% of the calves went to buyers outside of Virginia.

Subscription rate: $2.00 a year payable in advance.

SOUTHERN PULPWOOD CONSERVATION ASS'N.

Atlanta, Ga. - Some 400 representatives of the pulp and paper industry in the South will attend the annual meeting of the Southern Pulpwood Conservation Association held at the Biltmore Hotel, Atlanta, Georgia, January 18 and 19.

Those attending will be foresters and men responsible for procuring the pulpwood used by this industry. More than sixteen million cords of pulpwood was produced in the region extending from Virginia to Texas last year, amounting to 61 per cent of the nation's total production, according to H. J. Malsberger, Forester and General Manager of the Association.

The Association was formed in this industry in 1939 and for fifteen years has been actively promoting the wise use of the southern forest resource. "Many of the original founder of this program, states R. V. Miles, Jr., President of the Association, "will attend the meeting."

Future expansion of this rapidly growing industry, which is now valued at nearly two billion dollars in the South, depends upon a continuing supply of wood. The Forest Experiment Stations of the U. S. Forest Service, located in Asheville North Carolina, and New Orleans Louisiana, have made recent surveys of the forest condition in several of the southern states. A summary of these findings will be presented by E. L. Demmon and Phillip R. Wheeler, representing these two stations.

A recent study of the wood requirements of the United States in 1975, made by an independent fact finding institute, predicts nearly a one hundred per cent increase in the production of pulpwood from the southern forest.

March of Dimes funds assisted in the care of 70 patients in Fairfax County, Virginia, during 1954.

AHS Newscast

By Jane Holt

January 11, 1955

June,

Isn't this snow beautiful? Just isn't enough of it! There was basketball game tonight to be canceled. I don't know when we will play it. We play our next game Friday night against Madison Heights, here. Last Friday both of the AHS teams chalked up a victory over Madison Heights. The teams were really clicking. Jerry George was high scorer for the boys with fifteen markers. I hope we can keep winning streak in '55.

Today the Forensic and F. B. L. Clubs met. The F. B. L. A. is going to have a candy sale Friday, January 14th, during homeroom period. They also decided to get Miss Crumley, the state advisor, to come and speak to the club. Shirley Morris presented an interesting program to the club concerning the meaning and purpose of F. B. L. A.

The Forensic Club is beginning one-act plays. Several plays were discussed this morning. Teddy Mitchell, Bobby Barger, and Mary Jane Cole read the parts of one play to us. During the last week of February, the club plans to enter in the District Meet of One Act Plays. Therefore, much work has to be done.

In our Speech class, we students have been studying "Macbeth." Many of us have acted out various parts and quite successfully, too.

Saturday morning, the 15th, the Tri-Hi-Y is spensoring a Bakery Sale at the Appomattox Hardware. We do hope that a great deal of our food will be sold.

A P. A. system has been installed in the gym. It is really very nice. We hope to start dancing instruction in our Gym classes. This system adds a great deal to the gym.

Saturday, the 15th, Edna Gregory will attend an executive meeting in Richmond to plan the Model General Assembly for '55. We are very proud of Edna and the splendid work she has done in the Tri-Hi-Y.

This concludes the local happenings around the grounds of ole AHS this time. Be looking for more news next week, same time.

'Til then,

Jane.
